On-Campus Housing:
Storrs Campus

Process for Campus Change students

Living On-Campus At Storrs

- 63%, approximately 13,400 undergrad students live on campus
- Up to 40,000 people on campus each day-faculty, staff, students, etc.
- High demand for housing, excellent community environment on campus

Important Tips

- Work on your approval documentation early. Don't wait until the last minute!
- Your deadline for your approval and housing application is on our website under "Important Dates" (campushousing.uconn.edu)
- Complete the appropriate housing application in your MyHousing portal.
- Expect to have a roommate. Plan how to share space with another student and to negotiate roommate conflicts or concerns.
- Read email. Pay attention to detail and deadlines.
- Deadlines are not guidelines!

Important Tips con’t

- Know how to ask for help and who to ask.
- Explore UConn Storrs student support resources.
- Use our website (Campus Housing Website) for housing questions. Think about how to get involved.
- Find something that interests you.
- Meet other students.

How you are assigned to a space

- In most cases, students select their own rooms.
- Qualified campus change student participate in room selection. To qualify for the selection process,

  Campus Change students must:
  - Meet all deadlines and requirements
  - Be guaranteed housing
- A timeline and information about room selection is on our website.
- Campus Change students who don‘t meet the deadlines or who are not guaranteed housing are placed on the waitlist. These students are offered housing if we have space available.

A bit about room selection

- Selection times are generated based on class standing and credits earned. Students with the same amount of credits will select in random order.
- You can select a room beginning with your time and up until the end of the process. https://campushousing.uconn.edu/living-on-campus/selecting_housing/
- You'll receive a selection time in that will be listed in your MyHousing portal.
- Once you choose, you cannot change your selection, so don't rush and choose wisely!
